CHRISTIAN DISCOVERY, GENOCIDE, and the DAKOTA PIPELINE

A daylong conference at Iliff School of Theology concerning the legacy of the Christian Doctrine of Discovery and its impact on Native Americans

SCHEDULE
10:00am-Noon: "Genocide on Three Continents," an interdisciplinary panel featuring Dr. Edward Antonio (Iliff), Dr. Sarah Pessin (DU), and others
12:00pm-1:30pm - Bring a sack lunch
1:30pm-2:30pm: Film screening, The Doctrine of Discovery
2:30pm-3:15pm: Breakout Sessions
3:30pm-4:45pm Keynote address
5:00pm-6:00pm: Dinner by Tocabe Native American Eatery

6:00pm-7:30pm: "The Legacy of the Doctrine of Discovery and the Dakota Access Pipeline," featuring Dr. George "Tink" Tinker (Iliff), Dr. Glenn Morris (CU Denver), and others.

Free and open to the public

Tuesday October 11th, 2016
Iliff School of Theology, Shattuck Hall, 2323 E Iliff Avenue, Denver, CO 80210