TUESDAY, APRIL 14, 7:30 P.M.
HOLOCAUST FILM - THE COUNTERFEITERS
Kress Cinema · 817 8th Avenue, Greeley, CO
Free Tickets. Seating limited to 100. Call 970-339-6225 for tickets.
Master counterfeiter Salomon ‘Sally’ Sorowitsch, a Jew without morals, is arrested and sent to Mauthausen concentration camp, where he weasels through by offering his ‘artistic’ services. He is eventually given an official alternative: taking ‘artistic’ charge of a cons teams assigned to produce perfect forgeries of allied banknotes for the Third Reich. Survivor Sally accepts, but conscience matters among the team prove no less dangerous then a sadistic jayer, which only the CO may keep in check.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1:30 P.M.
HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR PRESENTATION: NATHAN TAFTEL
Greeley Central High School · 1515 14th Avenue, Greeley, CO
Open to Greeley Central students only.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 7:30 P.M.
HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR PRESENTATION: NATHAN TAFTEL from Milwaukee, Wisconsin
UNC University Center Ballrooms · 2101 11th Avenue, Greeley, CO
Free and open to the public.
Born in Poland, Nathan was robbed of his childhood by the Nazis during the Holocaust. After many years of remaining silent about his experiences, Nate now speaks to students across the country about how one can overcome hate and live a full life due to inner strength and perseverance. His book, Stolen Childhood is available for check out at our local libraries and will be available for purchase at this event following his presentation.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 12:00 - 1:00 P.M.
BROWN BAG LUNCH: FORGING FOR SURVIVAL
Greeley City Museum · 714 8th Street, Greeley, CO
Presentation by Naomi Johnston about her mother’s experiences hiding in the Dutch Underground during the Holocaust.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1:00 P.M. & 3:30 P.M.
HIGH PLAINS LIBRARY DISTRICT
HOLOCAUST FILM SERIES
Farr Library · 1939 61st Ave, Greeley, CO
1:00 P.M.: Monuments Men (PG-13, 118 min)
3:30 P.M.: Swing Kids (PG-13, 112 min)

THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 7:30 P.M.
COMBATTING THE HOLOCAUST: JEWISH FEMALE PARTISANS
Riverside Library, City of Evans Meeting Rooms · 3700 Golden St., Evans, CO
Presentation by Dr. Joan Clinefelter, Chair and professor in the History Department at UNC. Dr. Clinefelter’s presentation will recall the role women played in taking up arms against the Nazis during the Holocaust. Using oral histories, documents and images, Dr. Joan Clinefelter, will help commemorate their defiance. All are welcome to attend.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1:00 P.M. & 3:30 P.M.
HIGH PLAINS LIBRARY DISTRICT
HOLOCAUST FILM SERIES
Farr Library · 1939 61st Ave, Greeley, CO
1:00 P.M.: Swing Kids (PG-13, 118 min)
3:30 P.M.: Monuments Men (PG-13, 112 min)

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 4:00 - 6:00 P.M.
“PORTRAITS OF CHILD HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS” RECEPTION
AND EXHIBIT WALK-THROUGH
Artist Deborah Howard, DU Art Professor
Mari Michener Gallery, UNC Michener Library
14th Avenue & West Campus, Greeley, CO
West Alcove, 1st floor
After interviewing many Holocaust survivors, Dr. Howard used her talents of drawing to produce touching portraits that capture the subjects’ humanity and depicts them as real people who surmounted ordeals to lead ordinary lives.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 7:00 P.M.
INTERNATIONAL FILM SERIES: MISA’S FUGUE
Lindou Auditorium, UNC Michener Library
1400 22nd Street, Greeley, CO - Lower Level
The History of the Holocaust through Film and Literature. Moderated by Jennifer Goss, teacher at Foothills Academy High School who helped develop the course. She will explain how students and teachers created this project documenting this event. Misa’s Fugue is the true story of one boy’s journey through Prague, and several concentration camps as a victim of anti Nazi oppression. While exposed to some of the most horrific people, places, and events of the Holocaust, Frank Grunwald was able to endure the atrocities of genocide through a love for art and music.

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 8:30 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.
TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST:
AN ECHOES AND REFLECTION WORKSHOP
Miile Auditorium, Kerper Hall, UNC Campus
800 17th Street, Greeley
COA free workshop on studying the Holocaust using materials from the Echoes and Reflection curriculum. This all day event will share materials and methods (CCSS aligned) for teaching about the Holocaust with secondary students across content areas (PD certificates will be provided). In recognition of the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz, keynote speaker, Holocaust Educator Jennifer Goss, will focus on “The Liberators.” This event will be hosted at UNC and co-sponsored with the ADL, the USC Shoah Foundation, Yad Vashem, Colorado Holocaust Educators, and the Holocaust Memorial Observances of Greeley and Northern Colorado. For registration information, please contact Dr. Jeni Kraver at Jeraldine.kraver@unco.edu. (We ask that you pre-register for this free event.)

SUNDAY, APRIL 19, 2:00 P.M.
KLEZMER BAND PRESENTATION
Unitarian Universalist Church
929 15th St, Greeley, CO
The state of a society is reflected in its music, and nowhere is this more apparent than in Yiddish music during World War II. From Yiddish swing to ghetto resistance songs, join clarinetist Mike Gersten and his band, A Bisl Klezmer for a musical trip around the world.

For more information, email greeleyholocaustmem@gmail.com