

Dear Students Living in China:

Thank you for your interest in the University of Denver. Whether you have already applied or intend to apply in the future, I want to tell you about a new application requirement for applicants living in China.

The University of Denver is now requiring the CIEE Applicant Interview (CAI), administered by the Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE). We are excited about this new tool, which is currently only offered in China, and believe it will help us better assess your English proficiency and enthusiasm for enrolling at the University of Denver.

If you intend to study at our intensive English program (the English Language Center) before you begin your degree, you will not be required to complete this interview to receive admission. Instead, if you are admitted to the University, you will be admitted as an English Conditional student – meaning, you will be required to attend our English Language Center (ELC), full-time, until you successfully complete Level Five English. For more information about our ELC, please click here: <http://www.du.edu/intl/elc/>.

If, however, you plan to begin your degree program as soon as you arrive, you will be required to complete the CAI. Registration is simple. Just fill out the online registration form by clicking here <http://www.cieechina.org/cai-registration.php>. After completing and submitting this online form, a representative will contact you to arrange a time and location for your interview.

The deadline for completing the CAI is November 4 for Early Action First-Year admission consideration. The deadline for completing the CAI is January 15 for Regular Decision First-Year admission consideration. The deadline for completing the CAI is June 15 for Late Action and Transfer admission. It is essential that you register for the CIEE Applicant Interview (CAI) as soon as possible and plan accordingly to meet the appropriate deadline.

If you have any questions about the CAI or would like to register by phone, please call 021- 6427 6285 (China).

Sincerely,

The Office of International Student Admission

P.S. Important note: The CAI is required for any applicant who will submit a TOEFL score of 80 or higher, or an IELTS score of 6.5 or higher (with no subscores below 6.0).
