TUITION DEPOSIT

- I accept your offer of admission and enclose the $300 tuition deposit.
- I accept your offer of admission. My government will fully sponsor my education. Therefore, I am not expected to enclose the $300 tuition deposit. I understand that I will be considered a deposited student when the University of Denver receives this completed response form and an official sponsorship letter.
- I accept your offer of admission. I have been awarded a full Athletic Activity Grant from the University of Denver. Therefore, I am not expected to submit the $300 tuition deposit, but I still must submit the completed response form.
- I would like to postpone/defer my offer of admission to the following quarter/year _____. Submitted is my $300 deposit.
- I decline your offer of admission and plan to attend _____ (School Name).

HOUSING DEPOSIT

If you have been Regularly Admitted (non-English Conditional Admission) and you are under 21 years of age or you have completed less than two years of university-level education, you are required to live on campus. Your tuition deposit will not be processed unless we receive your $200 housing deposit by the deadline date specified in your admission letter. You may combine both deposits in one $500 payment. In addition, all housing applications must be filled out and submitted on-line, instructions can be found at <http://www.du.edu/housing/student/applying.html>.

- I will live on campus. I have met the TOEFL/IELTS requirement. Enclosed is $200 for the housing deposit. I understand that I am required to live on-campus for two years or until I am 21 years old.
- I will not live on campus. I have been granted English Conditional Admission (ECA) and I am not eligible to live on campus. I will enroll at the English Language Center and I will locate off-campus housing.
- I will not live on campus. I am 21 years of age or older OR I have completed two years of university-level education prior to my enrollment at DU. I will locate off-campus housing.

PAYMENT INFORMATION
