GENERAL TRANSFER CREDIT OVERVIEW

- Academic courses are considered on a course-by-course basis for transfer credit
- Courses must be similar to what is offered at the University of Denver
- Credits are more readily accepted from institutions with regional accreditation, although credits earned at an institution with national or special accreditation will be considered
- CLEP exams are not accepted for credit
- Military coursework that is listed on an official Joint Services transcript may be approved by the most closely related department at the University of Denver
- Courses may transfer in as Common Curriculum requirements, major and minor requirements, departmental electives, or college electives
- Common Curriculum requirements are courses offered across many disciplines and are required across all majors (see next two pages for more information)
- Courses must have a grade of C (2.0) or better to be considered for credit
- Accounting courses must have a grade of B (3.0) or better to be considered for credit
- Pass/Fail courses will be considered if a pass is equivalent to a C (2.0) or better
- Pass/Fail courses will only transfer in as electives – they will not count toward Common Curriculum requirements or major/minor requirements
- The Transfer & International Education Course Reporting System (http://myweb.du.edu/mbdb/du_bwcktart_P_DU_Choose_Geog_Area) shows courses that have been approved for transfer credit. Courses and institutions not found in the database may be acceptable. The absence of a particular course or institution may mean that it has not been evaluated. Courses will continue to be added as new ones are evaluated and equivalents are determined.
- Online courses are not categorically restricted, but may be refused based on instruction methodologies not equivalent to those at the University of Denver
- Official credit evaluations are completed after acceptance, and only if we have the official transcripts
- Grades do not transfer and are not included in a student’s University of Denver GPA
- Transfer credit hour values are assigned by the originating institution. When the originating institution is not on the quarter system, the appropriate formula will be used to convert the credits to quarter hours.
  - 1 semester hour = 1.5 quarter hours (e.g. typical 3 semester hour course = 4.5 quarter hours)
  - Institutions not on the quarter/semester system will indicate the appropriate conversion on their transcripts
- A maximum of 45 credits can be transferred in from AP or IB credit
- A maximum of 90 quarter hours (60 semester hours) can be transferred in from two-year institutions
- A maximum of 135 quarter hours (90 semester hours) can be transferred in from any combination of two- and four-year institutions, AP/IB credit, and/or Military credit
- At least 50% of the required credit hours for the major and minor must be completed at the University of Denver
- The final 45 credits must be earned in residence at the University of Denver
  - Residency may be waived for students studying in an approved study abroad program
- Initial course transferability decisions are made by the Office of the Registrar, but final authority over course transferability and determination of course equivalency rests with the appropriate academic department, and may require additional information, like a syllabus, to make a final determination
