During Fall Quarter 2010, we will offer two linked classes that satisfy the new Common Curriculum requirements. All students can take the Fall Quarter ARTH/ENGL 2613 Ways of Knowing class.

Following completion of an application process, selected students will also enroll in ASEM 2518 (Writing Intensive) for Fall Quarter, followed by travel to Rome, Florence and Venice (November 25 – December 9, 2010)

ARTH/ENGL 2613: Excavating Italy: The Classical, Renaissance and Romantic Past Fall Quarter 2010: TTh 2:00-3:50, SAB 119, 4 credit hours

All students are eligible to sign up for this class (either under its ARTH 2613 or ENGL 2613 number), which fulfills the “Ways of Knowing” requirement in the new Common Curriculum. We will explore the great achievements of Italian art and literature that inspired the tradition of the European Grand Tour, including: the classical monuments of Rome; the paintings and sculptures of the Italian Renaissance in Florence; and the art and architecture of Venice. We will also examine the works of later artists and writers inspired by Italy and those who made the Grand Tour and evaluate their responses to Italian culture.

ASEM 2518: Exploring Italy: Classical Rome, Renaissance Florence, Romantic Venice Fall Quarter 2010: Tuesdays, 4:00 – 5:50 pm, SAB 119, plus 14 days travel, 4 credit hours Writing Intensive

This class fulfills the new Common Curriculum requirement for a writing intensive seminar (ASEM). The ARTH/ENGL 2613 class is a co-requisite for travel to Italy, so travelers must enroll in both classes. Students who wish to travel with us need to fill out an on-line application from the School of Art and Art History website, print it out and bring with a $600 deposit to Jason Kellermeyer at the Shwayder Art Building, Main Office. We will follow in the footsteps of the artists and writers whom we studied during Fall Quarter and explore the great monuments of Rome, Florence and Venice.
