

Join DU Art! at the New Nagel Art Studios on the University of Denver Campus

for our first-ever:

Conservation Road Show

Sunday, May 1, 2011 Noon to 4:00 P.M.

*Join a group of art professionals:
conservators specializing in paper, paintings, and objects, an appraiser, a frame specialist, a gemologist, and a collections management professional, to learn about the preservation of your collections and heirlooms!*

Consultations with the specialists will help you to assess:

- Condition
- Options for Treatment
- Value Characteristics
- Archival Framing Options
- Preventive Measures
- Optimum Environment
- Management of a Collection

*Participants are invited to bring an object from their own collection for examination.
Concurrent sessions will culminate in a discussion of interesting objects and preservation issues.*

RSVP early; space is limited.

Admission: $50.00 ($65 non-members) for all participants bringing objects or for those only observing: $25.00 DU ART! members $35.00 for non-members

DU Art! Conservation Road Show
Registration Form

Name: _____

Phone: _____

e-mail: _____

Description & Dimensions of Object: _____

_____ $50.00

I do not care to bring object _____ DU Art! member: $25.00

Non-member: $35.00

Amount enclosed: _____

Please make check payable to DU Art!

Deadline for registration: April 22, 2011

If you are planning on bringing an object for examination, you will be contacted at least one week prior to the event to make arrangements for delivery. Please plan on arriving early. All objects must be self-insured.*

Please remit this registration form along with your check to:

University of Denver
School of Art and Art History
DU Art!
2121 E. Asbury
Denver, CO 80208-4303
