

CME Celebration 2015

Schedule of Events

UNIVERSITY of
DENVER

CENTER for MULTICULTURAL EXCELLENCE

THROUGHOUT THE WEEK

May 1st – May 30th

Faculty of Color Book Display

Celebrating the research and scholarship of DU's faculty of color, this book display showcases publications authored and co-authored by current faculty of color. All books are available for check-out.

Anderson Academic Commons, Main Floor, South Entrance

Friday, May 1st

9:30AM – 10:30AM

Counter-narratives on the Student of Color Experience at DU

During this presentation, undergraduate and graduate students of color will share personal narratives on their individual and collective lived experiences both in and outside of classroom at the University of Denver.

Reiman Theater, Margery Reed

Please RSVP at <http://tinyurl.com/May1-student-exp>

Wednesday, May 6th

12:30PM – 2:00PM

Community Lecture

Now You See It, Now You Don't! Racism in Post-Racial Times

Dr. Eduardo Bonilla-Silva

Anderson Academic Commons, Special Events Room

Please RSVP at <http://tinyurl.com/bonilla-silva-lecture> by Monday, April 27th

3:00PM – 4:00PM

Conversation with Campus Communities of Color

Dr. Eduardo Bonilla-Silva

The Chambers Center, Garden Room

Please RSVP at <http://tinyurl.com/bonilla-convo> by Wednesday, April 29th

Thursday, May 7th

4:00PM- 5:00PM

Critical Race Theory in Education Lecture Series

CRT, the Law, & Critical Race Policy Analysis

Dr. Tom Romero

The Chambers Center, Room 160

6:00PM – 10:00PM

CME Celebration: A Look Back as We Look Forward

(Short Program at 7:00)

Cable Center, 2000 Buchtel Boulevard

Please RSVP at <http://tinyurl.com/cmecelebration> by Thursday, April 30th

Friday, May 8th

8:30AM – 3:00PM

Black Male Initiative Summit

Denver Metro 8th and 9th grade Black males are invited to participate in this college access event hosted by the Center for Multicultural Excellence (CME) addressing education, leadership and Black male identity through the lens of the Counter Narrative. To register an 8th or 9th grade Black male for the Summit or to attend as an adult, please RSVP at the link provided below.

<http://www.du.edu/cme/programs-services/access/bmis.html>

Sturm Hall

8:30AM – 4:30PM

Latina/o Graduate Association 2nd Annual Academic Pathways Conference

The purpose of the Academic Pathways Conference is to illuminate pathways to graduate school by connecting students with resources to better navigate the undergraduate to graduate process.

Please RSVP at <http://portfolio.du.edu/lga/page/48270>

Daniels College of Business and Margery Reed Hall