Ceremony Procedures & Conduct

Participants should report in cap and gown to Warren Circle no later than 8:00 a.m. on Friday, August 14, 2009. Locate the sign indicating your school and degree. You will be given a card with your name, which you will later hand to the Reader as you walk on the platform. Please indicate phonetic pronunciation of difficult names on the card. Each group is arranged in alphabetical order, as the names of students will be read. You will proceed across the platform to be greeted by the Chancellor and to receive a diploma case. The tassel on your cap is worn on the right front side until the degree is conferred. Gentlemen should remove their caps during the national anthem and invocation.

Commencement is a formal ceremony in which the University honors its graduates. It is considered inappropriate for food or alcoholic beverages to be present. We expect that students will fully comply with the University's Code of Student Conduct. Disturbances to the Ceremony will not be tolerated. Any individual involved in disruptive actions will be removed from the ceremony and any interference will be appropriately handled through the Office of Citizenship and Community Standards.

Diploma Case/Diploma

Diploma cases will be handed to degree candidates as they cross the stage during the ceremony.

It is very important that you verify your mailing address and hold status at <http://webcentral.du.edu>. Any past due obligations (parking tickets, library fines, tuition accounts past due, exit interviews for loans, et cetera) will hold your diploma. Your current address information and hold status may be viewed by clicking on the "Student" tab. Your diploma and an unofficial transcript will be mailed eight to ten weeks after graduation.

Your diploma will be mailed to your current mailing address. If you would like your diploma mailed to a separate, temporary address, please email registrar@du.edu with a subject line of Diploma Mailing Address.
