

CURRICULUM VITAE

Judith E. Fox, Ph. D.

Assistant Professor
Director, International Disaster Psychology Program
University of Denver
Graduate School of Professional Psychology
Colorado License # 872
Private Practice: 1777 S. Harrison St., #800, Denver Colorado 80210
(303) 756-1651

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

- B. A. University of California, Berkeley, 1976 (Psychology)
- M. A. University of Kansas, 1979 (Clinical & Child-Clinical Psychology)
- Ph. D. University of Kansas, 1981 (Clinical & Child-Clinical Psychology)
- Internship Langley Porter Psychiatric Institute
University of California, San Francisco, 1980-1981
- Postdoctoral University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, 1981-1982
Fellow,
Child/Clinical Psychology

AWARDS

- Robert E. Harris Award. Outstanding Fellow in Clinical Psychology. Langley Porter Psychiatric Institute, University of California, San Francisco, 1980-1981.
- David Schulman Award for Excellence in Clinical Psychology, University of Kansas, 1979.
- Departmental Citation in Recognition of Outstanding Undergraduate Accomplishment in Psychology. University of California, Berkeley, 1975-1976.
- National Institute of Mental Health Fellow, 1976-1977.
- Phi Beta Kappa. University of California, Berkeley, 1976.
Graduate with High Honors and Great Distinction in General Scholarship. University of California Berkeley, 1976.

CLINICAL, TEACHING AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

POSITION	DATES	INSTITUTION
Assistant Professor Director, International Disaster Psychology Program	2006 - present	University of Denver Graduate School of Professional Psychology

Description: Administration, supervision and development of program, supervising Master's level students in field-placements in the Denver area, development of field-placements abroad. Clinical supervision of Psy. D. students' evaluation and treatment of clients in University Professional Psychology Center, teaching graduate level courses in trauma, life-span development, diagnosis and treatment of children/adolescents.

Private Practice	1988 – present	Denver, Co.
-------------------------	----------------	-------------

Description: Evaluation and treatment of children, adolescents, adults. Modalities include individual, couple and family psychotherapy. Special expertise with children, adolescents experience divorce, behavioral problems, depression and loss, trauma, school problems, ADD/ADHD.

Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry	1983 – present	Dept. of Psychiatry, UCHSC, Denver
---	----------------	---------------------------------------

Description: Availability to supervise psychology interns and to teach seminars in development/clinical theory. Actively engaged in supervision and teaching psychology interns and psychiatry residents on a regular basis from 1983-1990.

Part-time Staff Psychologist	1988 – 1989	Veterans Adm. Medical Center Denver, Co.
---	-------------	--

Description: Supervision of psychology interns and teaching of psychiatry residents on psychiatric inpatient unit. Psychologist consultant to Infectious Disease Division, HIV Infection Clinic.

Assistant Professor
of Psychiatry

1983 – 1988

University of Colorado Health
Sciences Center

Description: Supervision of psychology interns who provide psychological services to adult medical patients, consultation to medical staff, teaching case seminars.

Head of Psychology
Assistant Professor of Psychiatry

1983 – 1988

Dept. of Medicine
National Jewish Ctr.
for Immunology &
Respiratory Medicine

Description: Assessment and treatment of adult inpatients and adult and child outpatients with complicated medical and psychiatric problems (dual (diagnosis); consultation-liason work with medical and nursing staffs; participation on multi-disciplinary teams. Practicum supervision of psychology interns and externs in assessment, treatment and consultation activities. Administrative responsibilities including the heading of the Clinical Psychology Services, training program and staff including: budgetary responsibilities; representation of service within the Department of Medicine; structuring the delivery of psychological services; supervising supporting staff.

Clinical Head,
Adult Psycho-
Social Services

1986 – 1988

Dept. of Medicine
National Jewish Ctr.
for Immunology &
Respiratory Medicine

Description: Administrative coordinator of the outpatient adult psychosocial services. Responsibilities include coordination of outpatient psychological services (Psychiatry, Psychology & Social Work) and development of new outpatient programs.

Interim Head of Psychosocial
Services

June 1985 –
January 1986

Dept. of Medicine
National Jewish Ctr.
for Immunology &
Respiratory Medicine

Description: Administrative Head of the divisions of Psychology, Social Work and Psychiatry. Clinical program planning, budgetary responsibilities, supervision of support staff; representation within the Dept. of Medicine.

Houston, B. K., Fox, J. E., and Forbes, L. E. Trait anxiety and children's state anxiety, Cognitive behaviors, and performance under stress, Cognitive Therapy & Research, 1984, 8, 631 – 641.

Unpublished Manuscripts

Fox, J. E. Evaluation of a psychiatric day camp for children. University of California, Berkeley (1976).

Fox, J. E. Psychotherapy with patients with AIDS. National Jewish Center for Immunology and Respiratory Medicine (1988).

PRESENTATIONS

Fox, J. E. Distinguishing Between Cognitive and Somatic trait and state Anxiety in Children. Colloquium. University of Oregon (1982).

Fox, J. E. Cognitive and Somatic Anxiety in Children. Colloquium. Miami University (1982).

Fox, J. E. Cognitive Behaviors in Evaluative Situations. Colloquium. Duke University Medical School (1982).

Fox, J. E. Psychosocial Factors and Chronic Illness. Presentation: Grand Rounds, National Jewish Center for Immunology and Respiratory Medicine (1983).

Fox, J. E. The Experience of Working with Patients with Chronic Illness. Ongoing educational seminar for nurses. National Jewish Center for Immunology And Respiratory Medicine (1984-1985).

Fox, J. E. & Dowell, D. Patient Education Program for National Jewish Center for Immunology and Respiratory Medicine (1986-1988).

Fox, J. E. Psychotherapy with patients with AIDS. Presented at AIDS Conference, Veterans Administration Medical Center, Denver, Co. (1988).

Fox, J. E. Psychological testing. Presented to Psychiatric Residency Seminar, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, Denver, Co. (1988).

- Fox, J. E. & David Hurst, M. D. (discussion group leaders). Conference: Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy. University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, Given Institute Aspen, Co. (Summers 1988, 1989).
- Fox, J. E. Introduction to paper presentation. Conference: Sampson and Weiss: Theory, Colorado Society for Psychology and Psychoanalysis, Denver, Co. (1990).
- Fox, J. E. & Turner, S. Children of High-Conflict Divorce. Presentation to My School Preschool, Denver, Co. (1997).
- Fox, J. E. Children of High-Conflict Divorce: Phenomenology & Intervention. Presentation to faculty & students, Graduate School of Professional, University of Denver, 1997.
- Fox, J. E. Signs of Emotional Distress in Preschool Children. Child Development Day Care Center (associated with Swedish Hospital), Denver, Co. 1999.
- Fox, J. E. Nonverbal Learning Disabilities. Presentation: Statewide conference on Learning Disabilities, sponsored by Denver Academy, Denver, Co. (2004)
- Fox, J. E. Understanding Children with Learning Disabilities. Presentation: Parent Education Seminar Series, Denver Academy, Denver, Co. (2005)
- Fox, J. E. Attachment Theory: Relational Elements of Trauma and Peacebuilding. Presentation: Conference on Trauma and Peacebuilding, University of Denver (2007)
- Fox, J. E. Embracing A Service Learning Perspective. Panel Presentation: The Theory And Practice of Public Good Work, University of Denver (2007).