

TABLE OF CONTENTS
From Global Issues in the Middle School.
© Center for Teaching International Relations.

Acknowledgments

Foreword

Introduction

I. Introducing the Concept of Global Awareness

Global Connections

The Global Kid

What Do We Know About...? What Do We Want to Know?

II. Studying Human Values

What are "American Family Values"?

Special Ways with Holidays

Religion and Values

The Trees of Life

World Music

Creating Culture Wheels

III. Studying Global Systems

What is a System?

They've Got the Whole World in Their Hands

The Rights of Indigenous Peoples

The Communications Network

Sharing Our Global Environment

Adventure in Antarctica: A Case Study in Cooperation

IV. Studying Global Issues and Problems

Global and Local Issues: A Survey

Biodiversity

Democracy at the Turn of the Century

Refugees: Has the Welcome Mat Been Pulled?

Poverty and Populations

Sustainable Development

V. Studying Global History

Historical Relations

The Family Tree of a Language

The Spice of Life

Potato Power: How One Food Changed the World

The Nobel Peace Prize: Conflict in the 20th Century

Humankind's Better Moments

Additional Resources for Teachers
Materials
Organizations