

TABLE OF CONTENTS

From Teaching About Africa: A Continent of Complexities.
© Center for Teaching International Relations.

Table of Contents

Section I: Introduction

Section II: Mapping Africa

Africa: Continent of Country?
My, What a Big Continent You Are
Map Maker, Map Maker, Make Me a Map
Who's Who and Who's Where in Africa
Africa: North and South

Section III: Perception

What is Africa to You?
What Did You Say Your Name Was?
So Alike in Our Differences
Do the Clothes Really Make the Person?
But They Told me So: Africa In the Press

Section IV: Tradition vs. Modernization

Thoroughly Modern, or Is It?
The Book and the Drum
What's in a Myth: The Case of the Asante
Decisions: Extended Family Style
The New and Improved Cooking Pot

Section V: Role In Global Community

Statistics, Fact of Fiction
Africa's Population Explosion
Africa and You: The African Connection
The New South Africa
Hunger in Africa
Points of View
Who Should Get the Aid?
From an African Perspective
Sudan and the Economics of Peace
Africans: Yesterday and Today
Organization of African Unity Conference

Sources