

TABLE OF CONTENTS

From Teaching Writing Skills: A Global Approach.

© Center for Teaching International Relations.

Introduction

- Overview
- Rationale
- A Global Approach
- When and Where to Use These Activities
- Objectives

Why Write?

- Why Write?
- Ten Suggestions for Improving Writing in the Social Studies
- Twenty-five Ways to Stimulate Creative Writing

Using Personal Experience

- This is Your Life
- Personal Timeline
- Guess Who's Coming to Diner
- A Day in the Life

Using Perception

- Trusting Your Senses
- Every Picture Tells a Story
- A Symbol of the Times
- A Word is Worth a Thousand Pictures

The Role of Language in Writing

- It Gets "Curiouser" and "Curiouser"
- It Works Both Ways
- Word Power
- Global Dictionary
- The Terminology of Development

Clarity in Writing

- Rewriting History
- Say Again, Please
- Truth In Advertising: Fact or Fiction?

Perspective and Writing

- Writing Makes a Difference
- Proverbs
- It Makes the World Go 'Round

Perspective in the News

Using the Newspaper

Writing and the News Media

On Your Own

Global Headlines

The Language of Protest

Human Rights Posters

The Poetry of Protest

Student Handouts