

Helpful Links for Problem Gamblers

The National Council on Problem Gambling is a comprehensive website for practitioners and clients. It provides links to many resources including other problem gambling websites, a directory of certified gambling counselors, and reading material.

<http://www.ncpgambling.org/>

The Problem Gambling Coalition of Colorado provides specific resources for individuals living in Colorado. It is a good resource for individuals seeking treatment options in the state of Colorado.

<http://www.problemgamblingcolorado.org/>

Gambler's Anonymous provides information about their treatment program as well as meeting times and locations.

<http://www.gamblersanonymous.org/>

The National Center for Responsible Gambling (NCRG) is devoted to funding research and increasing knowledge about pathological gambling. This is a good resource for professionals to learn about current research in the field.

<http://www.ncrg.org/>