International Students:

All international applicants must concurrently apply through the DU Office of International Student Admissions. Please note additional fees may incur. Applicants should call 303.871.3119 or email intladm@du.edu for more information and further assistance in this process.

International applicants, or applicants who do not hold a degree from an institution where English was the primary language of instruction, must take the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) exam in addition to the GRE or MAT. For more information on taking the TOEFL, visit www.ets.org/toefl.

All applicants are required to take one of the following:

- Graduate Record Exam (GRE) General Test

OR

- Miller Analogies Test (MAT)

Graduate Records Exam

The Graduate Record Examinations (GRE) General Test measures verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning, and critical thinking and analytical writing skills that have been acquired over a long period of time and that are not related to any specific field of study.

For information on GRE and testing site locations, contact the Educational Testing Service (ETS) at 866.473.4373 or visit the GRE website at www.gre.org. The GRE is offered in computer format and is available at testing sites on a daily basis.

When registering for the GRE, the institution code for the University of Denver is R4842. You must request that ETS forward your results directly to the University of Denver for admissions purposes.

Allow three to four weeks after you take the test for your scores to be received by the University. You may report your unofficial scores on your application, however a complete application requires an official score report.

Miller Analogies Test

The MAT is a high-level analytic ability test requiring the solution of problems stated as analogies. The 60-minute test consists of 120 analogies covering the liberal arts.

The MAT is administered at Controlled Testing Centers located throughout the U.S. Each testing center establishes its own testing schedule, application process, and fees.

The University of Denver offers the MAT through the Center for Academic and Career Development. To schedule a test at DU, call 303.871.2150.

The MAT Candidate Information Booklet can be downloaded for free off the website at www.milleranalogies.com.
