2008-2009 Photograph & Video Tape Policy

Photographs and videotapes are strong components of training and teaching. They are an integrated piece of Fisher's curriculum planning and classroom projects. Images will only be used for instructional or general informational purposes.

For specific research studies or projects where photographs or video will be taken, families will be contacted individually and permission will be requested ahead of time. The Fisher Early Learning Center follows the established guidelines of the State of Colorado and The University of Denver for any and all research conducted at the center.

I give permission to have my child photographed for instructional or general informational purposes.

I do not give permission to have my child photographed for instructional or general informational purposes.
