

Associate Provost

Associate Provosts have line authority within the organization, preferably with responsibility for subunits. They have significant authority for budget and/or programmatic decisions and responsibility to formulate, implement, and interpret policies relevant to the unit. These positions report directly to the Provost and may be delegated authority to act in the capacity of Provost in his or her absence.

Positions require extensive relevant experience in the area of responsibility and an advanced or terminal degree.