

Cherrington Global Scholars Program Acceptance

ACCEPTANCE OF PLACEMENT

I hereby accept placement as a Cherrington Global Scholar into a DU-sponsored Study Abroad Program. I have read the pre-departure material and understand the policies and procedures. I understand that I am financially responsible to follow the guidelines of the program. I understand that I forfeit the opportunity to study abroad if I do not submit the required forms and information in a timely manner. I also understand that my Cherrington status can be revoked if I am placed on academic or judicial probation before or during my time abroad. Complete details are stated in the Study Abroad Guidebook.

BILLING AND PAYMENT SCHEDULE

The University of Denver has established the Cherrington Global Scholars program to make a study abroad experience accessible to all undergraduate students. This initiative allows for you to pay the University of Denver's normal tuition rate and technology fee plus DU housing and meal charges if provided by your program. In an attempt to standardize the housing charge, we have chosen the current rate equivalent to a double room at the University of Denver. However, this charge does not imply that the living conditions in the host country will be equal to that at the University of Denver. The equivalent of the meal plan will be charged if you are participating in a program that provides meals. These fees will be billed to your account during the DU registration period. You are required to pay the fees in accordance with the billing schedule of the University of Denver. If you are attending a program in the southern hemisphere, this means the bills would not be sent out until after you have left the country, so please make appropriate arrangements. The DU standard withdrawal policies are not in effect for Study Abroad.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY AND SCHEDULE

You are subject to a cancellation fee of $1000 if you withdraw from your program under the following conditions: For programs beginning before or during the Fall Quarter, if you withdraw after June 1st; for programs beginning during the Winter Quarter, if you withdraw after December 1st; for programs beginning during Spring Quarter or break week prior to it, if you withdraw after February 1st. The cancellation fee will be billed to your student account regardless of whether tuition and other costs have been invoiced or received at the time of cancellation. In addition, you will be billed any non-recoverable cost of any airfare already ticketed, regardless of your date of withdrawal. Once a program has started, the cancellation fee will be charged along with any non-recoverable cost as determined by the reimbursement policies of our partner institutions and other agencies. If you decide to return to the U.S. for any reason, except under advisement from the University of Denver or the host institution to do so for reasons of safety, the cost of the return is solely your responsibility.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENT PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

You must follow directions as indicated on the "Cherrington Travel Arrangements" document. Failure to follow these instructions will result in forfeiting this Cherrington benefit. If you have any questions or concerns about the policies or procedures please contact your Study Abroad Advisor. Transportation coverage includes rail or bus fares to the city in which the program is located if other than the student's airport arrival city. Airports used must have regular scheduled service and published fares. Covered airfare is calculated as the expense for travel departing from Denver and arriving on the day program housing begins. Covered costs do not include local expenses such as bus, tram, taxi or airport transfer or expenses of getting to or from the departure airport in the U.S. or hotels in transit to your location. Nor do they include costs such as change of fare or penalties due to changes in your itinerary made at your own discretion, nor any extra costs due to non-standard itineraries or travel dates desired by the student. You should make travel arrangements as soon as possible but they must be purchased no later than 31 days prior to departure or you will forfeit this benefit. Once ticketed, you are responsible for any non-recoverable cost if you withdraw from the program.

UPON RETURN

I understand that upon my return to the DU campus, I will volunteer to assist the Study Abroad Office with recruitment and orientation activities.

I understand these policies as summarized:

Student Participant Signature

Date

Print Name

Student ID