

DU Partner Programs

Definition: A program with which DU has a formal affiliation. A complete list of DU Partner Programs can be found on the OIE website.

You pay DU: DU tuition ($12,312)
DU housing ($2,435)*
DU meals ($1,274)*
DU technology fee ($48; charged per DU quarter)
DU study abroad program fee, if applicable
DU study abroad application fee ($50)
 If included with your study abroad program. Prices listed are for the 2011-2012 academic year.*

You pay the program: Only additional add-ons or items not included, such as books, art supplies, lab fees, etc.

State/federal aid applies? Yes

DU aid applies? Yes, including housing grants

Credits earned are: Resident Credit

May Cherrington Global Scholar benefits be applied? Yes

Unaffiliated Programs

Any program with which DU does not have a formal affiliation. (All summer programs are considered unaffiliated.) Requires pre-approval to ensure that DU will accept the credits, and must not duplicate a partner program offering.

DU study abroad administrative fee ($150)
DU technology fee ($48; charged per DU quarter)

Full program fees

Yes

No

Transfer credit

No