
Announcement of the 2011 Dante Alighieri Scholarships

For the twenty-sixth year the Dante Alighieri Society of Denver, Colorado is offering scholarships for college students who are studying Italian language, culture, history or music. Applications will be available the first week of February through your foreign language/studies department, your music department or on-line at www.dantealighieriofdenver.org .

Completed applications must be received no later than April 8, 2011 to be considered for grants.

Once applications have been received, they will be evaluated by the Scholarship Committee with winners being notified on or before April 23, 2011. The values of the scholarships range from $500 to $2000 depending upon the number and the quality of the applicants. Grants will be awarded to the winners May 1, 2011 at the Society's annual Scholarship Luncheon.

Cordialmente;

Dr. John Giardino
Dante Alighieri Society
Scholarship Committee Chair
johncgiardino@comcast.net