

International Experience Approval Form

This form is to be used by students participating on non-credit international experiences in order to verify eligibility for DU's International SOS Coverage. If you are participating in an international experience that is a necessary component of your DU degree program, or are receiving any funding from the University of Denver, you are eligible for International SOS coverage. The University of Denver offers various opportunities for students to go abroad for an experience without receiving academic credit. These experiences may include doing research for a thesis or dissertation, foreign language study, or an international internship.

Please complete this form to confirm your academic unit has approved this experience. You will also need to submit the Risks, Responsibilities Agreement and Release form and submit both forms to the Study Abroad Office.

In addition, please complete the information on the myWeb International Travel tab.
