

The Globe

October 31, 2014 - Halloween Edition

Around Denver

Don't Forget Daylight Savings this Sunday!

On Sunday November 2, the United States will turn its clocks back one hour. We use Daylight saving in the United States to make better use of natural daylight hours. You can learn more about it here.

Denver Arts Week

November 7-15, 2014 is Denver Arts Week. On November 8 between 5pm and 10pm, more than 20 museums in Denver will be free for "Saturday Night at the Museum" with a free shuttle running between participating museums!

Announcements

Like us on Facebook!

Stay up-to-date with ISSS by liking our Facebook page!

No Walk-In Advising Today

Please note that there will be no walk-in advising on Friday, October 31st. Instead, you are invited to the ISSS Halloween Party! (Details below).

Drop off your I-20s for a Travel Signature

If you plan on traveling at the end of the quarter and need a new travel signature, you can drop it off at the I-House front desk. If you drop it off before 10 a.m., you will be able to pick it up at 4 p.m. the same day.

If you will be traveling outside the United States during Winter Break, make sure to refer to the ISSS Travel Information webpage before you depart the U.S. to ensure that you have all of the documentation required to re-enter the U.S. in student status. Be sure to check the date on your travel signature to be sure if it is still valid (they are valid for one year or the end of your I-20/DS-2019, whichever comes first). To help determine if you need a travel signature, you can use this chart as a guide.

We also are having a Travel Signature Clinic on November 14, 10am – 12pm and 1pm – 4pm

ISSS Needs Your Help!

ISSS is looking for a few international student volunteers who would like to talk to us about how US classrooms are different than the classroom environment in their home countries. We will record these sessions and use them in an instructional video for faculty members at DU. If you are interested, please contact Kelsey Abbott at Kelsey.Abbott@du.edu. Thank you for your consideration!

Campus & Community Events

14th Annual Diversity Summit: 50 Years Since Selma Your Voice Still Matters

January 22 & 23, 2015

We invite you to register for the 14th Annual Diversity Summit. Keynote Speaker and Champions of Change details can be found on our website. The call for proposals and workshops is already open with a deadline of November 3. Please see www.du.edu/cme/programs-services/summit for more information and email questions to diversitysummit@du.edu.

Graduate Career Services Fall Workshop Series

Are you pursuing a job in academia following graduation? Graduate Career Services, Graduate Student Government and the Division of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences are hosting a four-part workshop series to help you prepare for your future and navigate through this process.

Organization of American States Scholarships

The Organization of American States (OAS) is offering three different scholarships for students from Latin America and the Caribbean. Details of the scholarships can be found on their Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/RoweFund>

English Tutoring at the Center for World Languages and Cultures

The Center for World Languages and Cultures is excited to announce that tutoring in English is now available to matriculated international students. Tutors have open office hours in the Language Center in Anderson Academic Commons (see our website for more information: <http://www.du.edu/cwlc/tutoring/index.html>). English tutoring is available during the following hours:

- Mondays: 1:00 pm – 3:00pm
- Wednesdays: 12:00 pm – 5:00 pm
- Thursdays: 12:00pm – 3:00 pm

Students may drop in any time during those hours for help. Tutors can help with all skills – reading, listening, speaking, grammar and mechanics, and some writing support. If you need help specifically on writing assignments, you may be sent to the Writing Center for more concentrated writing help. We look forward to working with you!

Beijing Dance / LDTX

BeijingDance/LDTX was founded as China's first independent professional dance company, beholden in no way to the government ("LTDX" translates literally as Thunder Rumbles Under Heaven). Artistic Director Willy Tsao, China's foremost figure in modern dance, and Deputy Artistic Director Li Hanzhong, hold true to the company's origins, bringing to the stage a diverse repertory, giving young Chinese artists a place to express themselves freely, and highlighting the works of Chinese choreographers.
