Welcome to the University of Denver

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) welcomes you to the University of Denver!

ISSS is here to answer your questions about being an international student in the US.

WELCOME TO DENVER!

The climate in Denver is generally dry and sunny averaging 300 days of sunshine a year.

When you arrive in Denver, it will be cold so make sure you have a warm jacket! Visit this page for more information about annual weather in Denver.

THINGS TO DO

Denver is the largest city in and capital of Colorado. Denver offers many attractions including museums, galleries, theater, an amusement park, a zoo, eight pro sport teams, over 200 parks, nearby mountains, year round cultural festivals and more.

This website has lots of ideas for things to in Denver

ISSS will be arranging a trip to the National Western Stock Show on January 21st. Be sure to look out for additional information sent to your DU emails soon!
- Make sure you register for classes and pay your tuition bill online! Find more information with the Bursar’s Office. The Bursar’s Office is in charge of all payments you make to DU.

- Make sure your computer is compatible with DU requirements

- Use the campus map to find your way around campus (Find the International House on the map so you know where to go on Tuesday, January 3rd!)

- Understand the US Healthcare System, Mental Health, and Sexual Assault

- Get to know the offices that are at DU to support you:

  International Student & Scholar Services
  Health and Counseling Center
  Center for Multicultural Excellence
  Religious and Spiritual Life

---

Find resources on getting settled in Denver. This link includes information on:

- Banking Resources
- Cell Phones
- Driving in Colorado
IMPORTANT DATES

December 3 2016

• First day you can enter the US on your F-1 or J-1 visa with a start date of January 2

January 3 2017

• First day of classes for students on quarter system

• English Language Proficiency Assessment at 8 a.m.

• Required ISSS Immigration Session at 11:30 a.m. at the International House

Please bring your passport, I-20 or DS-2019, and I-94 (available online AFTER you have entered the US)

Note: If you have a scheduling conflict due to class, please email issscomm@du.edu to make arrangements as soon as possible

January 6 2017

• Required ISSS U.S. Culture & Campus Resources Session at 9:00 a.m. at the International House

• English Language Proficiency Assessment for students in the Sturm College of Law at 1:00 p.m.

January 9 2017

• First day of classes for students on semester system

Email: issscomm@du.edu
Phone: 303-871-4912
Website: http://www.du.edu/isss/