Congratulations Scott Kennedy recipient of the 2017 annual John and Vivian Sabel Award of the best article in The Journal of Contemporary China (JCC)

Scott Kennedy, deputy director of the Freeman Chair in China Studies and director of the Project on Chinese Business and Political Economy at the Center for Strategic and International Studies, has been selected as the recipient of the 2017 annual John and Vivian Sabel Award of the best article published in the JCC for his article, “The Myth of Beijing Consensus” published in the Journal of Contemporary China, 19, no. 65 (2010).

The award reception and dinner will be held at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies, University of Denver, the evening of Thursday May 11, 2017.

Journal of Contemporary China Special Issue Conferences

The Journal of Contemporary China (JCC) held three special issue conferences in Washington DC, Shanghai and Taipei during the fall of 2016. In October JCC collaborated with Center for International Governance Innovation (CIGI) and the School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) at Johns Hopkins University for a conference on the Domestic Sources of China’s Financial Internationalization. In November JCC Co-Sponsored The Political Economy of China’s Maritime Silk Road Initiative and Southeast Asia conference in Shanghai, China along with the School of Advanced International and Area Studies, East China Normal University, Mr. & Mrs. S.H. Wong Center for the Study of Multinational Corporations, USA, Center for Russian Studies, Shanghai, China and the Research Center for Co-development with Neighboring Countries, Shanghai, China. The last JCC special issue conference of the year was held in December at National Sun Yat-Sen University in Taiwan. The conference was titled Chinese Human Rights under Xi Jinping: A Multidimensional Assessment. Professor Suisheng Zhao was the Keynote speaker at all three of these conferences.
November 15, 2016 - Dr. Patrick M. Cronin, Senior Advisor and Senior Director of the Asia-Pacific Security Program at the Center for a New American Security (CNAS), spoke on "Power, Order, and US-China Policy in the Next Administration: What the Election Means".

November 14, 2016 - Two of CCUSC's visiting scholars, Guoxi Zhang and Jingyi Lu, presented their lecture about “American Presidential Election Through the Eyes of Chinese Visiting Scholars”. Guoxi Zhang is a Ph.D. candidate at the American Studies Center of Beijing Foreign Studies University, where he focuses on the American presidency and China-U.S. relations. Jingyi Lu is currently pursuing her Master’s degree in Diplomacy at Beijing Foreign Studies University.

November 11, 2016 - Dr. David Shambaugh spoke about his new book China's Future. Professor Shambaugh is an internationally recognized authority and author on contemporary China and the international relations of Asia, with a strong interest in the European Union and transatlantic issues.

October 26, 2016 - Dr. Paul Midford, Professor, and Director of the Japan Program, at the Norwegian University for Science and Technology (NTNU) in Trondheim, spoke on Japanese Public Opinion and Policy Responses to the Rise of China.

October 24, 2016 - This cosponsored event with the DU Department of Political Science featured Dr. Peter Gries presentation “How Ideology Unites & Divides Americans Over China'.

October 18, 2016 - The Center for China—US Cooperation participated in the National Committee on U.S. China Relations’ CHINA Town Hall: Local Connections, National Reflections. Dr. Henry A. Kissinger was the national webcast speaker for the event, and Mr. Henry Levine was our onsite speaker. Henry (Hank) Levine is a senior advisor with the Albright Stonebridge Group (ASG) -- a strategic advisory firm in Washington, D.C.

October 11, 2016 - Dr. Terry Lautz talked about his new book "John Birch, China and the Cold War". Dr. Lautz is a Moynihan Research Fellow at Syracuse University and former vice president of the Henry Luce Foundation in New York.

October 3, 2016 - Korbel Alumni Abraham M. Denmark spoke off-record about “The US strategic relationships with China in the regional context of the Asia-Pacific”. Abraham M. Denmark served during the Obama Administration as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for East Asia, where he supported the Secretary of Defense and other senior U.S. government leaders in the formulation and implementation of defense policy for China, Japan, Mongolia, North and South Korea, and Taiwan.