

Jackson/Ho China Forum
Thursday, September 17, 2009

Understanding a Diversified China

Bio of Dr. Jian Tao

Dr. Jian Tao was appointed the Vice President of China Institutes of Contemporary International Relations (CICIR), the primary institution for comprehensive international studies in China in September 1999. Dr. Tao was devoted to international economic relations, economic security and international plutonomy related research and teaching even before he joined the China Institute of Contemporary International Relations since late 1980s. He graduated from the Economic Department of Hangzhou University (B.A.), University of International Relations (M.A) and the Graduate School of China Academy of Social Sciences (Ph.D).

美中合作中心

This event is made possible by the William Sharpless Jackson, Jr. Endowment