Application for Graduate Financial Aid

Students seeking departmental scholarship or grant aid must complete this form. The form can be uploaded with your application. This form, in addition to all supporting materials must be received no later than Feb. 15 in order for you to be considered for a scholarship or departmental financial assistance. Instructions on how to upload the Application for Graduate Financial Aid can be found at the end of this form.

Students can apply for two types of financial aid: departmental financial aid — primarily merit-based aid, such as graduate scholarships, as well as a limited amount of need-based grant aid, and federal financial aid — including federal student loans and work study. To be considered for need-based and federal financial aid, you must complete and submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at www.fafsa.ed.gov by the priority deadline of March 1. For more information about federal financial aid, please go to the Office of Financial Aid's Web site, www.du.edu/finaid/grad.htm. International students are not eligible to apply for federal financial aid and do not need to file a FAFSA, but are still considered for merit aid.

Appointment and/or Assistance Sought:

- Graduate scholarship: The student receives financial aid in the form of partial tuition remission for which no service is rendered. These scholarships are awarded by the dean of the graduate school upon the recommendation of the department or school and are based on merit. (Scholarships cover only a portion of tuition and do not cover living expenses or books).
- Peace Corps Fellow Program. In cooperation with the Peace Corps, the Peace Corps Fellows/USA program permits students who have completed their service in the Peace Corp to study the M.A. in international and intercultural communication degree following their service. The IIC program reserves two 12-credit scholarships for those that have completed their Peace Corps Service.
