

2008-2009 IFC Recruitment Rules

If a Fraternity or a member of a fraternity is found to be in violation of any of the IFC Recruitment Rules, they will be brought immediately before the Vice President's of Recruitment for the Greek Council, the Vice President's of Judicial Affairs and Risk Management for the Greek Council, the President's of Greek Council, and staff in the Office of Campus Activities. It will then be decided if the violation warrants immediate action or will be sent to hearing by the Judicial Board.

The Recruitment time period is the period from the first day of Discoveries Week in the Fall until Bid Day. In the Spring Quarter it is the time from the first day of the quarter until Bid Day.

1. Rho Gammas (Recruitment Guides) must remain disaffiliated during House Tours.
2. Rho Gammas (Recruitment Guides) will not talk poorly about any organization and will actively work to promote the overall Greek Community.
3. No Fraternity or member of fraternity can engage in behavior that can be perceived as degrading to any protected class including women, minorities and/or sexual orientation during the recruitment process.
4. Alcohol cannot be present in any activity, regardless of size, that involves an active member and potential new member.
5. Recruitment events must be held during the hours of 8am -11pm during the Formal Recruitment Period (Friday September 19-Tuesday September 23, 2008).
6. Bids cannot be handed out before 8am on Tuesday September 23, 2008.

Signature

Date

Chapter