

Jordan Fox-Kemper, MSW, LCSW

EDUCATION

1998 Master of Social Work, Boston College; Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts
1994 Bachelor of Arts in History, Reed College; Portland, Oregon

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2008-- Adjunct Professor, University of Denver Graduate School of Social Work
Denver, Colorado: Teach "Clinical Practice and Theories" I and II, "Social Work Skills Across Client Systems and Lab" and "Domestic Violence". Clinical Supervisor.

2006-2007 Lecturer, Northeastern University Human Services Program
Boston, Massachusetts: Taught "Sexual Assault Training: Counseling and Education" in the Human Services Program.

2004-2007 Clinical Supervisor, Boston Area Rape Crisis Center
Cambridge, Massachusetts: Provided training and clinical supervision to graduate-level interns and staff in individual and group settings.

2004-2006 Consulting Clinical Supervisor, Northeastern University
Boston, Massachusetts: Provided clinical supervision to Clinical Social Worker/Coordinator of Sexual Assault Services at UHCS.

2004 Counselor, Resource Center for Women and Their Families
Hillsborough, New Jersey: Provided clinical intakes, assessments, treatment plans and psychotherapy for victims of domestic violence.

2001-2003 Medical Advocacy Coordinator, Boston Area Rape Crisis Center
Cambridge, Massachusetts: Managed the daily operations of BARCC's 24-hour medical advocacy program. Provided individual supervision to volunteer medical advocates, clinical social work interns and staff. Provided crisis intervention to survivors and their significant others in hospital emergency departments. Provided individual and group psychotherapy to survivors and their significant others. Facilitated weekly peer supervision meetings. Compiled Department of Public Health and other funding and statistical reports monthly. Trained medical advocates and community members about medical issues related to sexual assault. Served as a liaison to six area hospitals in the Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) network.

2000-2001 Volunteer Program Manager, Boston Area Rape Crisis Center
Cambridge, Massachusetts: Developed and managed a volunteer program of hotline counseling, medical advocacy and public education. Taught a 50-hour state certification program for volunteers, staff and community professionals tri-annually. Supervised a pool of 150 volunteers in individual and group meetings. Provided clinical supervision for graduate and undergraduate interns.

1998-2000 Dorchester Branch Coordinator/Social Worker, Big Sister Association of Greater Boston

Dorchester, Massachusetts: Conducted home based needs assessments for a diverse group of prospective Little Sisters. Created and supervised matches. Recruited and assessed Big Sisters for the program. Developed and Coordinated an ongoing series of community service projects for matches. Coordinated a corporate mentoring program for high school students at New England Financial. Led orientations and facilitated volunteer training sessions. Led staff diversity training sessions.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

1997-1998 Social Work Intern, Boston Area Rape Crisis Center

Cambridge, Massachusetts: Provided phone crisis intervention counseling for survivors and their significant others. Provided resources and referrals to survivors. Served as a medical and legal advocate for survivors. Co-facilitated a support group a homeless shelter for women. Provided individual short-term psychotherapy. Attended weekly trauma seminars at the Somerville Hospital Victim of Violence program.

1996-1997 Social Work Intern, Roxbury Defenders Youth Advocacy Project

Roxbury, Massachusetts: Conducted needs assessments of court-involved adolescents. Prepared comprehensive psychosocial assessments. Created service plans and alternative sentencing plans. Accessed and utilized community resources. Advocated for youth in a variety of systems.

CERTIFICATIONS and AWARDS

2007-- State of Colorado Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker

2000-- Commonwealth of Massachusetts Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker

2006 Sexuality Education Certification, Planned Parenthood of Massachusetts

2003-2004 State of New Jersey Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker

2003 Certificate in Clinical Social Work Supervision, National Association of Social Workers; New Jersey Chapter

2002 Basic School and Community-Based Critical Incident Stress Management Certification, The Trauma Center

2001 Postgraduate Certification in Clinical Supervision, Boston University

1994 Selected to present research thesis "New Woman to Nazi Mother: Why National Socialism Appealed to the Women of Weimar" at the Thirteenth Annual Lewis & Clark Gender Studies Symposium