

Ralph Kennedy

Ralph Kennedy is an experienced social worker with nearly eight years of MSW field experience in the areas of health care social work through planning, developing and providing health interventions in community settings; establishing, coordinating and implementing social work services and forging lasting collaborative relationships with various local community and health delivery agencies. Ralph earned his BS in Social Work from the Metropolitan State College of Denver and the Masters of Social Work at the University of Denver. He is currently an adjunct faculty member with the University of Denver Graduate School of Social Work. He taught with the Metropolitan State College of Denver's department of social work from 2003-2009. Ralph is the 2003 recipient of the University of Denver's Ruth Marx Stark Award for Excellence in Field Work Performance. He retired from the United States Air Force in 1995.