

Andrea G. Philleo, M.S., M.S.W.
Andrea.Philleo@du.edu

EDUCATION:

GRANT COMMUNITY HOSPITAL, CHICAGO, IL

Clinical Training Program for Addictions Counselors, January 1999-January 2000

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO, CHICAGO, IL

Master of Social Work, May 1998

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY, WASHINGTON, DC

Master of Science, Criminal Justice, December 1992

Bachelor of Arts, Law and Society, May 1991

WORK EXPERIENCE:

ADJUNCT INSTRUCTOR, UNIVERSITY OF DENVER, GRADUATE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK, DENVER, CO
(JANUARY 2007-PRESENT)

-provide full instruction for a variety of classes including Social Work Practice, Social Welfare Policy, Programs and Policies for High Risk Youth and The Prevention and Treatment of Juvenile Delinquency & Youth Violence

-coordinate class lectures, grading, homework assignments, off-site course requirements and in-class exercises

-utilize appropriate field trips to help demonstrate the importance of visualization and applying textbook and lecture type learning to real life and practical examples

ADJUNCT INSTRUCTOR, REMINGTON COLLEGE & WESTWOOD COLLEGE, DENVER, CO
(APRIL 2006-MAY 2010)

-responsible for the instruction of criminal justice related classes including Introduction to Criminal Justice, Juvenile Justice, Corrections, Woman and Criminal Justice, Crisis Intervention and Victimology

LEAD CASE MANAGER, WITHIN OUR REACH YOUTH INTERVENTION PROGRAM, MOUNT SINAI HOSPITAL AND BOYS & GIRLS OF CHICAGO, CHICAGO, IL
(MAY 1998-JANUARY 2000)

- provided intensive case management to youth (ages 10-24) victimized by interpersonal violence
- provided supervision to program staff, other case managers and supplementary research staff
- enrolled, assessed, evaluated and referred youth to gang intervention, mental health, substance abuse, educational, job placement and other services as deemed appropriate
- developed an intensive 20-page assessment tool and case management plan for all youth enrolled in the program
- responsible for overseeing day to day activities of program personnel, case managers, data analysis, evaluation material and referral sources utilized in the program
- provided follow-up referral sources for program participants through intensive linkage to hospital and social services

RESEARCH ANALYST, STATISTICAL RESEARCH SPECIALIST I & II, ILLINOIS CRIMINAL JUSTICE INFORMATION AUTHORITY, CHICAGO, IL
(JUNE 1993-MAY 1998)

- responsibilities included various research and analysis activities that supported the Authority's Research & Analysis Unit
- worked with the Authority and outside agency staff to develop, collect, analyze and disseminate statistical information on the extent and nature of Illinois' drug and violent crime problem and the justice system's response
- designed, conducted and managed evaluation research aimed at assessing the implementation and effectiveness of drug and violent crime control and justice system improvement projects
- managed and directed research projects in coordination with the Illinois Juvenile Justice Commission; including Illinois' Juvenile Justice Crime Analysis and Illinois' assessment of disproportionate minority representation
- monitored several outside evaluation efforts including programs related to corrections and probation

ACTIVITIES, INTERESTS AND HONORS:

- presented information regarding issues in the juvenile justice and adult criminal justice system to the Justice Research & Statistics Association (Washington, D.C. and San Antonio, TX), the Bureau of Justice Assistance (Washington, D.C.) the American Society of Criminology (Chicago, IL), and Illinois' DARE program (Chicago, IL)
- clinical social worker (internship), Costance Morris Domestic Violence Shelter, 1997
- clinical social worker (internship), Illinois Department of Youth Corrections - Warrenville, 1998
- substance abuse counselor (internship), Women's Residential Treatment, 2000
- student speaker, Loyola University School of Social Work Orientation, fall 1997
- student speaker, Loyola University School of Social Work Graduation, spring 1998