

---

---

Judaic Studies

Career Information

University of Denver

(303) 871-2150 <http://www.du.edu/career>

---

---

An Overview...

The interdisciplinary program in Judaic Studies explores Jewish civilization and its evolution and expressions in history, literature, philosophy, and religion from biblical times to the present.

Skills:

Proficiency in Hebrew language
Interest in Jewish Studies
Ability to appreciate other perspectives

Ability to think critically
Ability to weigh/evaluate values

Some Professional Careers:

Jewish Community Work
Educator
Historical Specialist
Interfaith Ministries
Jewish Awareness Advocates
Jewish Ministries

Philosopher
Rabbi
Researcher
Social Worker
Writer

Hiring Organizations:

Community centers
Educational institutions
Historical societies
Journals/Magazines

Museums
Newspapers
Religious centers
Research firms

Professional Organizations:

The Jewish Theological Seminary of America
3080 Broadway
New York, NY 10027
(212) 678-8000
www.jtsa.edu/

Reconstructionist Rabbinical College
1299 Church Road
Wyncote, PA 19095
(215) 576-0800 fax: (215) 576-6143
www.rrc.edu/

Rabbinical Council of America
305 Seventh Avenue
New York, NY 10001-6008
(212) 807-7888 fax: (212) 727-8452
www.rabbis.org/
email: rabbis@rabbis.org