

Edit the Graduate Studies Home Page

The Graduate Studies homepage can display up to 4 stories. These stories will already exist as news stories entered by University Communications.

1. Edit index.xml
2. Delete any stories you want to remove from the homepage.

Article 1 Information *Required

Enter the TITLE of the article *Required:
Better Learning Through Gaming

Enter the URL of the article *Required:
http://www.du.edu/features/stories/leutenegger2.html

Select the IMAGE of the article:

 Article 1

Enter the Teaser of the article *Required:
In Scott Leutenegger's classes, students use a cross-disciplinary approach to designing video games, mixing science with the arts, business and creative thinking. The approach often results in video games that encourage learning and motivate students to explore their classroom subjects.

3. Complete the form as follows:
 - a. Enter the TITLE of the article *Required
 - b. Enter the URL of the article *Required – Enter the full address beginning with http://
 - c. Select the IMAGE of the article.
 - i) Click .
 - ii) Locate and check the image file name.
 - iii) Enter a description of the image in the Alt text Field.
 - iv) Set the width of the image to 150.
 - v) Click OK.
 - d. Enter a Teaser of the article *Required – often the first sentence of the article.
4. Click Save and Preview.
5. Exit the Editor.