

Application for Art History Research Grant

The School of Art and Art History has a small fund to help defray the expense of art history graduate research for Masters Research Papers (MRP). Normally grants will range from $100-$500. These funds come from an endowment started by art history alumni. Either scan and email application to astott@du.edu or put it in Annette Stott's mail drawer in the Faculty Lounge.

Describe the research project this grant would support, exactly how the money would be used, and your anticipated timeline -- including any date past which you couldn't use the grant (ideally to be used over the next 2-3 quarters). Attach documentation of your access to resources (e.g. email from curator at museum you will visit), expenses involved, and a detailed budget. Reimbursements will be made with original itemized receipts only.
