

HOW TO APPLY:

EXCAVATING AND EXPLORING ITALY!!

FALL QUARTER 2016

Earn 8 QUARTER HOURS of COMMON CURRICULUM CREDITS including ARTH/ENGL 2613 (AI:SC, AHUM) and ASEM 2518 (Writing Intensive) and, continuing after Fall Quarter, 14 DAYS IN ITALY!

CLASSICAL ROME, RENAISSANCE FLORENCE, and ROMANTIC VENICE

This is not a Cherrington-eligible study abroad program.

Applications will be evaluated on the basis of a student's academic transcript, quality and depth of the four essay questions, and general preparedness for the program. Sophomores (by Fall 2016) will be considered on an individual basis. Personal interviews may be required as necessary. All students must be in good academic and judicial standing at DU. Program is limited to 25 students.

How to apply for ASEM 2518 Exploring Italy:

- Complete DU Study Abroad Application Form (available on School of Art website, Print out form, fill it out clearly, and get your academic adviser's signature (from your departmental major). Bring this form and the additional forms indicated below, plus a $600 deposit check payable to "Travel Square One" to Jason Kellermeyer, in the main office, School of Art and Art History, 2121 E. Asbury. Your deposit will be returned if you are not accepted into the program.
  - Complete four short answer essays: On a separate sheet, please answer the following questions.
    1. How does this program fit into your academic plans?
    2. What is your interest in this particular program and location?
    3. Why are you a good candidate for this program? What have you done to prepare for your study abroad experience?
    4. List at least 3 specific things you know about Italy (historical or cultural)
  - All accepted students will be registered for ARTH/ENGL 2613 (Ways of Knowing) and for ASEM 2815 (Writing Intensive). Indicate your preference for either ARTH 2613 or ENGL 2613.
-

If you do not yet have a passport, apply for one immediately! <http://travel.state.gov/passport>

When accepted, complete the following:

- Students will log onto the DU Passport site (<https://abroad.du.edu/>) and follow links to Faculty Led Programs. Risk and Responsibility waivers must be signed there. Students with any serious medical issues should speak directly with the professors about travel accommodations.
- Log into International SOS on line, <https://www.internationalsos.com>. This is for emergency evacuation only. Check your current health policy (either the DU Student Policy or if you are on your parents' policy, and make sure that you will be covered while traveling.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jason.Kellermeyer@du.edu, School of Art and Art History, Main Office, 303-871-2846; Professor M. E. Warlick, Art History, SAAH, (me.warlick@du.edu) 303-871-3271; Professor Eleanor McNees, (eleanor.mcnees@du.edu) 303-871-2855. We are happy to answer your travel questions, whether you plan return with the group to Denver or remain for further travel in Europe.