University of Denver, Driscoll Ballroom

Located at Evans and Race

Kosher wine and cheese reception to follow the presentation

THE BIELSKY BROTHERS: FEARLESS PARTISANS IN THE FORESTS OF POLAND

Featuring Robert Bielsky, whose father and two uncles saved 1200 Jews, including members of our local community, in the forests of Poland during World War II. A magnetic speaker, Robert tells an absorbing and little known story of resistance and survival.

COST: Tickets are $12 per person. No charge for students ages 12-18. Space is limited! Reservations are required.

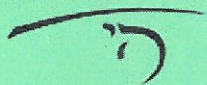

Please make reservations no later than March 1, 2007. Parking permits and tickets, which are required for entry, will be mailed for all pre-reservations.

About Fred Marcus, 5/16/24-6/25/02

Fred Marcus, for whom this Holocaust lecture series is named, spent the war years in Shanghai, China as a refugee from Nazi Germany. An outstanding Jewish educator, he spoke frequently about the Holocaust to schoolchildren, organizations and church groups.
