SAVE THE DATE: FEBRUARY 10, 2009
7TH ANNUAL FRED MARCUS MEMORIAL HOLOCAUST LECTURE

The 2009 lecture will feature the amazing and little-known story of Nicholas Winton, who singlehandedly saved 669 Czech children during World War II, finding foster home for each of them in the United Kingdom. Tomas Graumann will speak about his experience as one of "Winton's Children," and will introduce the inspiring film, "Nicholas Winton: The Power of Good."

YIDDISH SONGS AND HOLOCAUST MEMORY

Featuring Dr. Shirli Gilbert, Karten Lecturer in Modern Jewish/non-Jewish relations at the University of Southampton, England.
A former professional pianist, Dr. Gilbert is the author of Music in the Holocaust: Confronting Life in the Nazi Ghettos and Camps, a finalist for the 2005 National Jewish Book Award, which provides the first large-scale, critical account of the role of music among communities imprisoned under Nazism.
