

Yerim Kim, violin

Korean violinist Yerim Kim has distinguished herself as a musician with great virtuosity. She holds degrees from Arizona State Univeristy (BM) and currently studies with violinist Linda Wang at the University of Denver for her MM degree in violin performance. While a student at Incheon Art High School in South Korea, she was sought out for her musical ability, sensitivity, and knowledge of the art and performance of the violin. She has won numerous honors, including first prizes in the competitions at Geonggi-do, a province in South Korea, for three successive years from 1999-2001 and second prize in Kuk-Min Il Bo violin music competition. She has been chosen twice to perform in Youngsan Art Hall in South Korea as a soloist with Hyup String Ensemble in 2006 and 2007. Since then, she performed as a soloist and ensemble player across the country. In the past years, she has performed for master classes given by members of the Juilliard, Orion, Brentano, and St. Lawrence quartets. She is also an alumna of the 2011 InterHarmony International Music Festival in Germany.

Performance Videos of Yerim Kim:

JS Bach's Sonata No. 2: <http://youtu.be/FhyINIVbJ0E>

Samuel Barber's Violin Concerto: <http://youtu.be/0cPBR4BwP9s>