Student Grant for Summer 2013 Internships

The Dean for Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences will award three grants for up to $3,000 each to AHSS students who will enroll in internships in summer 2013. The Dean of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences and Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies will choose recipients based on the application packet, outlined below.

Criteria

- Merit.
- Juniors and seniors (graduating no earlier than August 2013) majoring and/or minoring in Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences are eligible.
- The internship must be for academic credit (3-credit minimum) at the University of Denver.

Process

- Electronically submit the following by April 15, 2013, by 11:59 p.m. to Nicholas Bowlby, Liberal Arts Advantage Coordinator, at Nicholas.bowlby@du.edu with AHSS Internship Grant Application in the subject heading:
  - Write a one page (no more than 500 words) statement that explains the following:
    - Where you intend to intern.
    - The academic department that will be supervising the internship.
    - Why you chose the organization you did.
    - How the organization and the experience you will gain fit with your educational goals.
  - Your current APR.
  - A brief note from the organization confirming the internship.
  - A brief letter from the faculty member who will supervise your internship.

Special Note: Nicholas Bowlby will reply to you via e-mail confirming receipt of your application. If you do not receive a confirmation e-mail from Nicholas, please contact him to verify that your proposal has been received.

Nicholas Bowlby | Liberal Arts Advantage Coordinator
University of Denver | Division of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences
2000 E. Asbury Avenue | Denver, CO 80208-0900
(t) 303.871.4924 | (f) 303.871.4436 | nicholas.bowlby@du.edu