Student Grant for Summer 2012 Internships

The Dean for Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences will award up to five grants for up to $3,000 each to AHSS students who will enroll in internships in summer 2012. The Dean of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences and the AHSS Elected Faculty Committee will choose recipients based on the application packet, outlined below.

Criteria

- Merit, including that of the relationship between the placement and academic goals.
- Juniors and seniors (graduating no earlier than August 2012) majoring and/or minoring in Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences are eligible.
- The internship must be for academic credit (3-credit minimum) at the University of Denver.
- Economic factors, such as unpaid nature of internship, costs associated with accepting internship, etc.
- Internship must occur in summer 2012.

Process

- Electronically submit the following by Friday, April 13, 2012, by 11:59 p.m. to Therese Mathis, Executive Assistant to the Dean, at therese.mathis@du.edu:
  - Write a one page (no more than 500 words) statement that explains the following:
    - Where you intend to intern.
    - The academic department that will be supervising the internship.
    - Why you chose the organization you did.
    - How the organization and the experience you will gain fit with your educational goals.
    - Your need for funding.
  - Your current APR, or equivalent documentation of your current GPA.
  - A brief note from the organization confirming the internship.
  - A brief letter from the faculty member who will supervise your internship.
- Applicants will be informed by early May.
