

AHSS Student Research Grant

Funded by the Humanities Institute Fund for Excellence Endowment

The purpose of this AHSS Student Research Grant is to make special projects (research and/or creative endeavors) feasible to AHSS students who would otherwise face cost-prohibitive travel or research expenses. Up to seven grants for up to $1,250 each are available.

Criteria

- Merit.
- All full-time undergraduate and graduate AHSS students are eligible (graduating no earlier than August 2015).
- The grant must be used between May 9, 2015, and June 30, 2016.

Process

The recipients of the AHSS Student Research Grants are selected by the AHSS Elected Faculty Committee (EFC) and the Dean. Please note that an EFC member will be asked to recuse himself/herself from this grant application review process if he/she is a recommender or an advisor for a student applicant.

Electronically submit the following by April 17, 2015, to ahss@du.edu with AHSS Research Grant Application in the subject heading:

- A one page (no more than 500-700 words) statement that clearly states the following:
 - Name, major, Banner ID number, and year in school
 - Title of project
 - Two descriptions of the research or creative endeavor you are pursuing:
 1. Brief description (under two sentences) of the research or creative endeavor you are pursuing.
 2. Longer description (under 200 words) of the research or creative endeavor you are pursuing.
 - How this project fits with your educational goals.
 - How you will share the knowledge that you have attained with your peers and/or the community.
 - Brief explanation of how this funding is necessary for you to pursue your research and/or creative endeavor.
 - If traveling, where you intend to travel to pursue your research and/or creative endeavor and a brief explanation of why traveling is required.
 - The academic department that will be supervising your research and/or creative endeavor.
- A budget that outlines your use of the $1,250 grant.
- Your current APR, or equivalent documentation of your current GPA.
- A brief letter from the faculty member who will supervise your research/creative endeavor.

* Special Note: You will receive an e-mail confirming receipt of your application. If you do not receive a confirmation e-mail, please contact us to verify that your proposal has been received.

Applicants will be notified no later than May 8, 2015. Grants will be dispersed in a timely fashion thereafter. Selected grant recipients may be asked to present at AHSS functions, such as student mentorship events.
