

Description:

For over 19 years, the Glendale Cherry Creek Chronicle has been bringing the valley's news straight to our readers' doorsteps.

As an editorial intern, you'll work alongside Glendale Cherry Creek Chronicle award-winning staff to help produce our monthly print newspaper. Exact duties vary based on intern interest/skills and on what we've got going on, but in general, you'll:

- work side-by-side with staff
- attend planning and editorial meetings
- write bylined stories, blogs, and reports
- fact-check and copy edit
- help plan future issues
- learn the art of great story pitching
- tackle interesting research projects
- obtain essential web content management and SEO skills

LOCATION

Position is on-site in Denver, Colorado.

TIME FRAME/START DATE

We have internships available year-round. Position start and end dates are flexible, and the application process is rolling.

COMMITMENT

Flexible. Ideally, at least 20 hours per week.

COMPENSATION

Academic credit only. This is an unpaid internship position.

Experience:

- *Demonstrated interest in writing and journalism
- *Excellent writing skills
- *High attention to detail
- *Self-motivated and enthusiastic
- *Social Media and Website Content Management experience a plus
- *Can receive academic credit for the internship

We typically hire juniors, seniors, or grad students for this position, but we will consider exceptional freshmen or sophomores. Internships are in our offices in Denver, CO. We do not provide assistance with housing.

How To Apply:

Send a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to Glendale Cherry Creek Chronicle Executive Editor Mark Smiley at mark@glendalecherrycreek.com.