

PERSPECTIVES

CRITIQUE. CREATE. EMPOWER.

University of Denver's
Media, Film & Journalism Studies Newsletter

Fall 2015

IIC Student Leads Cross-cultural Competency Project in China

Joy Pan, second-year IIC student, completed an internship in Shanghai during summer 2015. Pan noted how she was able to use the skills and concepts that she learned in the IIC program in her work that focused on cross-cultural competency and cross-functional alignment.
Learn More

DU is First North American University to Offer Cannabis Journalism Course

With Colorado serving as the petri dish of the marijuana legalization experiment, DU's department of Media, Film and Journalism studies (MFJS) became the first to offer a course solely devoted to cannabis journalism, during summer interterm 2015.
Learn More

My Internship with RTD: Navigating Colorado and Beyond

I remember landing in Colorado Springs, Colo. and entering the U.S. for the first time quite vividly. I was excited about going to college, being in a new country and a million other things. Then, culture shock set in when I realized that Colorado Springs lacked viable public transportation.
Learn More

CHAIR'S CORNER Fall as a season of exploration

The fall quarter is coming to a close, and what a busy one it's been! We have been engaging in a bit of experimentation with differing class offerings and settings, and also launched a new graduate program, M.A., Media and Public Communication. Learn more

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT Professor incorporates international research into curriculum

Students have the unique opportunity to learn from professors who work and research across the world. MFJS and IIC programs boast professors with experience in countries from Germany to Costa Rica and from Kenya to Romania. Learn more

ALUMNI PROFILE

Alumna finds success as international journalist Neela Eyunni ('08), author, news anchor and television host, is an international triple threat. As a journalism studies major, she gained critical experience in preparation for her career today. Eyunni's first journalism class sparked her interest in writing. Learn more

MFJS SHOWCASE Alumni and faculty continue to achieve

MFJS faculty and alumni have been busy this summer and fall with research, writing, film screenings and presentations around the world, awards and other honors. Read more about recent alumni and faculty work. Learn more

FEATURED EVENT DU Diversity Summit

January 21-22, DU campus
The 2016 Diversity Summit will explore how each of us can individually contribute to creating an inclusive campus and changing our community. Get involved and register now. Learn more

REMINDER Project DU F.I.L.M.

Project DU F.I.L.M. (Film Initiative Linking to Mentors) is a collaborative, interactive and vibrant film community that gives students the opportunity to work with professionals in meaningful ways. Learn more and contribute today.

STAY CONNECTED

- ✚ MFJS Calendar
- ✚ MFJS Website
- ✚ The Estlow Center
- ✚ Internship Opportunities
- ✚ Graduate Programs
- ✚ Undergraduate Programs
- ✚ Email us at MFJS@du.edu

SHARE YOUR NEWS

Tell us about your career and personal accomplishments, awards, life events or whatever else is keeping you busy. Share your news with fellow MFJS or IIC alumni by submitting a note to MFJS@du.edu.

DIGITAL MEDIA CLUB

Several DU students and faculty provide leadership for South High School's after school Digital Media Club. Each week, DU students mentor high school students who would like to use media to make a difference in their community.

Learn more about the story.