This course will present a diverse set of innovative approaches to toxic stress. Emerging data will be shared and strategies for developing, adapting, and testing solutions within context will be discussed. This course will incorporate hands-on learning to evaluate the possible fit between each approach and contextual needs and opportunities.

MARCH 15TH 2019
2 - 4 PM
UNIVERSITY OF DENVER - LOCATION TBD

REGISTER HERE

Presented by Sarah Watamura, PhD and the University of Denver Department of Psychology.