POLICY MANUAL	6/25/97	3.10.050	1 of 1
Subject:
NEPOTISM

A. No applicant shall be rejected and no employee shall be restricted in matters of pay, promotion, work assignment, working conditions, or any other factor solely as a result of a familial relationship with any other employee at the University of Denver.

1. However, persons in positions to make recommendations or decisions regarding employment, pay, promotion, work assignment or work supervision cannot exercise this authority over family members or over others with whom there are sufficiently close, personal or external business relations to engender a conflict of interest. Such recommendations and/or decisions shall be deferred to the next higher authority.

2. For the purpose of this policy, "family members" include spouses, siblings, parents, same-sex domestic partners, dependent and non-dependent children, grandparents, aunts, uncles, first cousins, parents-in-law, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, brothers-in-law, and sisters-in-law.

3. A "spouse" is the current husband or wife of an employee whose marriage is recognized under the laws of Colorado.

B. This Policy should not be construed to allow hiring, promotion, compensation or work assignments in a manner that violates or does not meet the objectives of the University's or the department's Affirmative Action goals.

C. This policy in no way limits the Conflicts of Interest Policy.
