

UNIVERSITY of DENVER

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
TO ADVANCE SCHOLARSHIP AND LEARNING

This two-day workshop is for instructors who are interested in incorporating community-engaged methods into their courses. The workshop covers topics such as:

- Models of community-engaged learning
- Developing community partnerships
- Designing goals, objectives and assignments
- Student perspectives on community-engaged learning
- Community-engaged learning and scholarship
- And much more...

Appointed faculty are eligible to receive a stipend for attending the training. Additional stipends are available for completing activities following the training.

FACULTY SCHOLARS: COMMUNITY- ENGAGED TEACHING

DECEMBER 3-4, 2019

APPLICATIONS DUE: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Application: https://www.du.edu/ccesl/ourwork/bridging_learning/ce_scholars.html

For Questions: ccesl@du.edu