

Community Engagement Corps

University of Denver
Center for Community
Engagement &
Service Learning

School Partner Interest Survey

CCESL's Community Engagement Corps connects DU students and K12 students through in-class and out-of-class tutoring and mentoring support that builds relationships with K-12 students; provides academic assistance in small groups or individually; facilitates a better understanding of concepts and reviews concepts, assists students in developing academic skills; and engages students in studying and problem-solving strategies.

CCESL is actively looking for additional Community Partners. If your school/organization is interested in hosting Community Engagement Corps tutors/mentors, please complete the School Partner Interest Survey below and return to ryan.hanschen@du.edu.

School:
Contact Name:
Email / Phone Number:

Please include a brief paragraph about your school/organization. What makes your school/organization unique?
Basic description of tutor/mentor responsibilities:
Number of DU students you are interested in hosting as tutors/mentors:
Types of skills or experience you'd prefer students to have:
Is there a set schedule or preferred days/times for tutors/mentors?
Do tutors/mentors need to commit to a certain number of hours per week?
Is there training available for tutors/mentors?

Please contact CCESL Program Coordinator Ryan J Hanschen at ryan.hanschen@du.edu; 303-871-4281 to learn more about the Community Engagement Corps and to get involved!