

HOW TO #makeanimpact

with the Center for Community Engagement & Service Learning

563,755
HOURS

DU Students engage in over half a million service hours each year.

For volunteer opportunities visit:
<http://volunteer.du.edu>

DU offers more than 100 Service Learning Classes each year.

These classes combine meaningful service in the community to topics covered in class.

Use "service learning" in the attribute section on your Course Registration page to find classes

Volunteer with DU Service & Change (DUSC) student organization to serve in your community.

Check us out:
www.facebook.com/Duservicechange

Mentor high school students through the Public Achievement program and work together to address our community's most important social justice issues.

Get Involved: publicachievementdu@gmail.com

To explore more ways to #makeanimpact, visit DU's Center for Community Engagement & Service Learning (CCESL) at their open house on September 19 from 3:00-5:00pm in Room 22, Driscoll South.

University of Denver
Center for Community Engagement &
Service Learning

CCESL
Driscoll Center South, Suite 22
2050 E. Evans Ave.
Denver, CO 80208
303-871-3706
www.du.edu/ccesl

Find us by searching: du ccesl

