

Galvanizing Tomorrow's Civic Leaders

Puksta Scholars

The University of Denver Puksta Scholars Program is a four-year, developmental civic engagement program with an intentionally diverse community.

DU Service & Change

DU Service & Change (DUSC) is a student organization engaging the DU community in diverse opportunities that facilitate positive change for the greater public good.

Work on Purpose

Work on Purpose is a half-day workshop that culminates in developing a personal hustle statement, outlining actions one could take to move their passions forward and identifying a mentor to provide additional support.

Kimmy Service Award

The DU Kimmy Foundation Community Service Award reflects the Foundation's commitment to the professional advancement and service of students in their growth and development as world citizens.

Spectator to Citizen Courses

This three-course sequence of two-credit courses is designed to help DU students develop a set of public skills and a civic knowledge base that will allow them to actively participate in their communities.

Voter Registration

CCESL helps students register to vote in several ways. All DU students will receive an email with information about voter registration 120 days before the registration deadline. Student can also register on campus.

Community Organizing Institute

The Community Organizing Institute equips participants with tools to effectively bring about social change.
