

Helpful Websites and Resources

Asian Law Caucus <http://www.advancingjustice-alc.org/>

An advocacy group that provides legal and civil rights support to Asian Pacific American communities and has helpful resources for immigrants.

Casa de Paz www.casadepazcolorado.org

Offers free meals and lodging for guests visiting their loved ones inside the immigrant detention center.

Catholic Charities of Denver Immigration Services

<http://www.ccdenver.org/services/immigration-services>

Offers economical legal advice for immigrants

The Dream Activist: Undocumented Students Action and Resource Network

www.dreamactivist.org

A youth-led movement for the enactment of the Dream Act and other pro-immigrant legislation.

Educators for Fair Consideration www.e4fc.org

A volume of very helpful resources for undocumented students to educators, students, and parents. Some of the many helpful resources include:

- Keeping the Dream Alive- A resource guide for undocumented students created by the National Council of La Raza
http://www.e4fc.org/images/Achieving_the_Dream_10_09.pdf
- How to Support Undocumented Students: Advice for Counselors and Educators
<http://e4fc.org/resources/educatorguides.html>
- How to Support Undocumented Students: Advice for Parents
http://e4fc.org/images/E4FC_ParentGuide.pdf
- 2012-2013 Financial Aid Guide for College-Bound Undocumented Students- Although this guide is designed for California students, much of the information applies to any undocumented student: http://e4fc.org/images/E4FC_FinAidGuide.pdf
- Step by Step Guide for Applying for Deferred Action <http://e4fc.org/dacaguide.html>
- Life After College: A Guide for Undocumented Students- This detailed guide describes options available to undocumented students upon college graduation:
http://e4fc.org/images/E4FC_LifeAfterCollegeGuide.pdf

Graduates Reaching a Dream Deferred (GRADD)

<http://dreamresourcecenter.org/gradd/>

An organization founded by undocumented graduate students that aims to address the needs of immigrant students interested in pursuing graduate education.

Higher Education Access Alliance (HEAA) www.coloradoasset.com

Information about Colorado ASSET legislation (in-state tuition for undocumented students)

Immigrant Legal Resource Center (ILRC) <http://www.ilrc.org/>

A national, non-profit resource center that provides legal trainings, educational materials, and advocacy to advance immigrant rights. Check out “IRLC: Living in the United States: A Guide for Immigrant Youth.”

Justice for Immigrants www.justiceforimmigrants.org/

A campaign designed to educate primarily Catholic community members and officials about immigrants.

National Association of College Admission Counseling (NACAC)- Undocumented Student Resources

<http://www.nacacnet.org/research/PublicationsResources/bulletin/2013Bulletin/02-13-2013/Pages/UndocumentedStudents.aspx>

The Knowledge Center has collected numerous resources to help counselors and admission professionals work with undocumented students, and now those resources are publicly available on the NACAC Web site.

National Conference of State Legislatures

<http://www.ncsl.org/issues-research/educ/undocumented-student-tuition-resources.aspx>

Academic and research articles, policy, and advocacy organizations

National Council of La Raza <http://www.nclr.org/>

A national Latino civil rights and advocacy group, this website provides information and links on issues affecting Latinos.

Padres y Jovenes Unidos <http://padresunidos.org/home>

Youth organizing in schools.

Pew Hispanic Center www.pewhispanic.org

Provides statistical and research information related to Hispanics in the United States.

Rights for All People <https://rap-dpt.squarespace.com/home>

Know your rights training and citizenship classes as well as social justice campaigns.

Rocky Mountain Immigrant Advocacy Network www.rmian.org

Offers low-income support for children and adults in immigrant proceedings.

Texas Guarantee Student Loan Corporation <http://www.tgslc.org/spanish/glossary/>

A very helpful Spanish/English glossary of college and financial aid terminology.

Together Colorado www.togethercolorado.org

Formerly Metro Organization for People (MOP) and PICO member.

*Organizations in Colorado