

Diversity Engagement Opportunities (DEO) compilation

(updated 05/26/17)

www.du.edu/studentlife/ie-education

Please pass on to others who might be interested.

Please direct questions and RSVPs to the listed contact for each event.

Let us know about opportunities not yet included (ideally with weblink to details); email igr@du.edu

Instructors/Program Coordinators: We especially invite you to write in one or more of the following programs as a co-curricular supplement to your courses/programs (e.g., as assignment option, extra credit, etc) for students to further explore, experience, and apply concepts.

CAMPUS OPPORTUNITIES

Friday, May 26, 7pm Knoebel School of Hospitality Mgt	Black Student Alliance Art & Fashion Show Join BSA in an exhibition of art and fashion! We will showcase members of the DU community, as well as the broader Colorado community. www.facebook.com/events/283270978764807
Saturday, May 27, 7pm Sturm Hall Davis Auditorium	10th annual eXpressions: Straight Outta Vogue Join the DU Asian Student Alliance as they conclude Asian Pacific American Heritage Month with their biggest event of the year! eXpressions strives to showcase the talents of students, community locals, and out-of-state performers, primarily Asian-Americans but also welcoming those of many other diverse backgrounds. This year, special guest speaker Kane Diep from Buzzfeed Media. Admission is Free! www.facebook.com/events/424733134552488
Tuesday, May 30, 7:30-8.45pm Newman Center for Performing Arts	Don't miss DU's own Mawule: More Than Music R&B artist Mawule brings Music & Storytelling, The Big 8 of Diversity, and Intersectionality to college campuses nationwide in his new initiative. More than Music is an entertainment platform that combines music performance, storytelling and dialogue. Using music as a tool to connect with people on an interpersonal level, Mawule brings awareness to social, societal, and personal struggles people experience. RSVP at www.eventbrite.com/e/mawule-more-than-music-tickets-34831153919
Wednesday, May 31 5:30-7:30pm Mary Reed 105, DuPont Room	Campus Rebellion and Plantation Politics: The Continued Search for Racial Equity in US Higher Education There is a resurgence of resistance to the structural racism and whiteness upon which institutions of higher education have been built. In recent years, Black students and their accomplices have generated passionate protests and multiple forms of resistance at over 150 college campuses throughout the country. Accordingly, this panel will explore how multiple forms of campus re-bellion, and the strategies universities use to respond to these acts, may reveal a modern conceptualization of "plantation politics." Panelists include Drs Dian Squire, Saran Stewart, Frank Tuitt, Bianca C Williams & William Cross. Register at https://goo.gl/jRmECK
Friday, June 2, 7:30-10pm Nagel Hall	Celebrating Ramadan at DU Join DU Muslim Student Association for Ramadan and Study, a community iftar and dinner combined with a finals study session! ALL are welcome. Fasting through the day is welcome, but not obligatory. A short informational presentation on Ramadan will take place. ADVANCE RSVP REQUIRED via www.facebook.com/events/119617911942311

OFF-CAMPUS OPPORTUNITIES

June 8-10, 2017 Colorado Springs	WHAT'S IN YOUR KNAPSACK? The Knapsack Institute is an intensive 3 days exploring how privilege and oppression contribute to teaching and learning. Learn in an intimate setting from leading social justice experts. Leave with tools and strategies to build more inclusive classrooms and organizations! www.uccs.edu/~knapsack
--	---

Pass along to others who might be interested! Please contact listed sponsor with questions or RSVPs. For additional events and other diversity resources, check DU's new Diversity portal: www.du.edu/diversity